Please use the attached FINAL version instead - the prior version was an incomplete draft (on our old letterhead + lacking financial report.)

The attached Q2 Report was actually finalized during the first week of the month, and it was simply an oversight that I didn't submit it earlier. My apologies.

Our August newsletter should go out very shortly to our email list -- likely tomorrow. Starting in September, we hope to release it at or before our monthly Board meeting. (Our vendors and we are both getting faster at turning around team stats/newsletter production.)
